NONGMEIKAPAM GOPAL COLLEGE
LAMPHELPAT, IMPHAL

NONGMEIKAPAM GOPAL SINGH
1st May 1884 – 14th May 1971
FOUNDER PRESIDENT
N.G. COLLEGE

Nongmeikapam Gopal Singh, popularly known as Gopal Mohari, was born on May 1, 1884 at Ningom Thongjao. He was the third child of N. Angangmacha Singh and Taruni Devi. Shri Gopal Singh showed signs of selfless services even from his childhood. His family left Ningom Thongjao and came to settle at Uripok Tourangba Leikai where he married Sijamacha Devi, a lady of high family. They were blessed by seven children namely Ketuki, Nabakishore, Iboyaima, Ibochouba, Ibotombi, Tombisana and Kosheswar. He belonged to the educated elite group of the British period and served as Assistant Head Clerk at the Sadar Panchayat Court, now District and Session Court. He retired from service during Second World War.

Retirement from service did not affect his life. On the other hand, he took up the public causes with vigour and zeal. In those days, there were very few schools and libraries in and around Imphal. His name is attached with the establishment of Tombisana High School, Tamphasana Girl's High School, Ibotonsana Girl's High School, Churachand High School, Ram Lal Paul High School, Public Library etc. He was also connected with organizations such as Manipur Nikhil Hindu Mahasabha, Manipur Congress Dal etc. Besides these, N.G. College, which carries his name is a permanent mark of his selfless hard work and generosity to the society. Nongmeikapam Gopal Singh died on May 14, 1971.

A BRIEF PROFILE OF N.G. COLLEGE

N.G. College (Nongmeikapam Gopal College) is ideally situated at Lamphelpat about one kilometre in the west from the heart of Imphal city. The location affords solitude and congenial atmosphere conducive to the pursuit of good education. The college has a spacious campus of 6.4 acres which provides sufficient areas for play-grounds and building infrastructures.

N.G. College was an offshoot of a solemn meeting on May 5, 1969, which gave birth to the “City College” in 1970 as a night college at Tombisana High School. On 21st December 1970, the then “City College” was renamed as “Nongmeikapam Gopal College”. The College was taken over by the Government of Manipur in 1980 and became a regular day college. The college is now affiliated to Manipur University and is recognised by the University Grants Commission (UGC) under 2f & 12B of the UGC Act.

N.G. College is an Arts College and has most of the subjects in Humanities and Social Sciences viz. Economics, Education, English, Geography, History, Manipuri, Mathematics, Philosophy and Political Science. In addition, the college has now opened Vocational Courses also, namely (i) Fashion Designing and (ii) Hospitality Management offered by DDU Kaushal Kendra, NG College and (iii) One Year Diploma Certificate Course in Media and Journalism under RUSA Scheme.

VISION AND MISSION OF THE COLLEGE

VISION:

- To encourage students to identify their latent talent and potential.
- To ensure better students’ performance from low inputs.
- To cater to the needs of academically disadvantaged students.
- To sensitise students towards social values.
- To promote co-curricular activities amongst the students to develop healthy habits.
- To mould students into ideal citizens and thereby fulfill social obligations.
- To create awareness regarding sustainable utilisation of biodiversity and environment.

MISSION:

- To enrich and empower the young generation through quality education.
- To achieve academic brilliance and prepare students to play a positive and meaningful role in nation building.
- To organise vibrant development programmes and services to help students identify educational and career goals and set realistic career paths.
- To make higher education accessible to the underprivileged section of the society.
- To introduce innovative techniques to make the teaching–learning process more effective.
- To develop the potential of the students in co-curricular and extracurricular fields through participation in literary, cultural, sports, and extension activities.

N.G. College, Imphal started its journey as a Night College on 22nd December, 1970 in order to cater the needs of a few earner-learners. Today, it is a full-fledged Arts Day College affiliated under Manipur University with nine Departments and more than 500 students.

The motto of the college is to inspire the quest of knowledge of the young students in all its ways and forms. With a set of extremely dedicated teachers, supporting non-teaching staff, good infrastructure and serene environment, the college ensures the students to provide an ideal place to learn and grow.

We pledge to transform our young boys and girls in such a way that when they leave the college after passing B.A. final examination, they become well rounded individuals ready to take on challenges in their respective fields in future.

I hope you would be an exciting and disciplined group of individuals from all corners of Manipur. I am convinced that your immense talent, disciplined behaviour, dedication and hard work will take the College to a greater height. Let your three years at N.G. College be most memorable in your life with sustainable friendship.

I look forward to welcoming you to the College.

(L. Manglemba Singh)

Principal

N.G. college, Imphal
